Daffodils are in full bloom at Julian Farm and Orchard

JULIAN, CALIF. (March 9, 2023) —The melting snow is revealing carpets of gorgeous yellow just in time for Julian Farm and Orchard’s annual “Daffodil Days.” This popular U-pick offering is back for its second year this season and will offer the largest U-pick daffodils in Southern California. Starting Friday, March 10th, guests can pick their own flowers from Julian Farm and Orchards sprawling flower fields.

The 25-acre sustainable farm saw thousands of visitors last year and gave an up-close experience with a variety of daffodils. This year, Tahiti, Carlton, Love Day, and Dutch Master are some of the variations that will be in full bloom. The farm anticipates up to 80,000 blooms from March through April, offering guests a large window for visits.

Daffodil Days will also see the return of the farm’s family-friendly activity offerings. Rock climbing, axe throwing, the petting zoo, hayrides, face painting and more will all be available as fun for the whole crew. The gift shop will also be open while featuring unique and locally sourced items. Guests can stay warm with a wide selection of Julian Farm and Orchard branded beanies and hoodies.

Admission at Julian Farm and Orchard is now made simple with an online booking system. Guests can skip the line and buy their entry options right from JulianFarmAndOrchard.com. The new pricing structure offers general admission and unlimited activity wristbands. Frequent visitors can also purchase a season pass that gives unlimited access to all the farm’s fun for the entire year.

Julian Farm and Orchard also has new options for school field trips and educational opportunities. The farm offers a comprehensive curriculum for students of all grade levels.
